EXHIBITION SPEAKER PANEL EVENT

By accomplished artists Lynn Randolph and MaryRoss Taylor. Art and Feminism in Houston, and the Growth of WCA in Houston and beyond, and what

WOMEN WHO DARE EXHIBITION

Opening March 2nd and exhibiting during library hours until May 29th.

In honor of Women's History month 21 WCA member artists will be represented, inspiring and empowering viewers to push boundaries, break stereotypes, and pursue their ambitions. This show serves as a recognition of the fearlessness, resilience, and determination of women in their pursuit of success and equality while it presents interpretations of the theme that vary from the personal to the historic, and examine women's place in our society past and present.

Opening Reception
March 2nd from 3 - 4:30 pm

Central Library Houston (downtown),
500 McKinney St., first floor.

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Growing membership, non-profit status, changed by-laws, and announcement about board membership changes

1. Membership is growing steadily, with 36 total, a 50% increase over last year. Encourage your artist friends to join!
2. Tax-exempt official status achieved: 501c3 approved, with many thanks to member Debbie Hollis for her expert guidance.
3. Our beloved president is moving on. While many of you know Debbie Gibbs is moving out of state, she will continue to lead the group for a couple of months of transition. Debbie will also stay on the board as Past President for up to a year to support the new president and the work of the organization.

The Board is now actively recruiting a Board President. Members are welcome to nominate other members or self-nominate. If you would like to consider this possibility, please contact Debbie Gibbs at gibbsdpg@me.com and she would be happy to talk with you.

4. Chapter by-laws have had some minor changes to allow board membership for residents outside of Texas.

WILD WOMEN of TEXAS

STILL OPEN: TEXAS HEAT ONLINE EXHIBITION

Missed the show and still want to see the art?

Those who were unable to attend the show can now see a virtual exhibit. What a great way to get to know WCA members. Just tap your way down the gray carpet to explore. Click on any image to learn more about the piece and the artist. Or click on the Guided Tour for a 3D slideshow. here.

The submission deadline will be July 29, 2024. The show will run from late August through mid-October at the Cultural Activities Center, Howard Gallery in Temple, Texas.

Start thinking about this theme and look out for the coming call for art prospectus in early March.

The theme of Texas Wild Women is open to many interpretations including Texas nature and wildlife, and the hopes and dreams of Texas women.

We seek to rope and harness our personal expressiveness and share our artwork conversations around our perspectives and experiences in nature, culture, and creativity.

This gallery space is large, with very high ceilings. This will be an excellent time for larger works: the minimum size accepted will be 18"x 24" and the largest size will be 40"x40". No pedestals will be provided for sculpture. This is a location where people from the galleries often shopping for art. Please no nudity, violence, implied violence, or overt political issues.
